Established 1864

Mission: We, the members of St. Louis Catholic Church, come together under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to promote the mission of Jesus Christ. We encourage and support the development of the sacramental life of each member in our communities through liturgical, education, social and service activities. The stewardship of our time, our talents and our treasures expresses the continuous accountability to God and the shared responsibility to each other, to our communities and to the world.*

CONTRARY TO popular opinion, discipline doesn't stifle or restrict the human person. Discipline isn't something invented by the Church to control or manipulate the masses, nor is it the tool that unjust tyrants and dictators use to make people do things they don't want to do. All these are the lies of a culture completely absorbed in a philosophy of instant gratification.

Discipline is the faithful friend who will introduce you to your true self. Discipline is the worthy protector who will defend you from your lesser self. And discipline is the extraordinary mentor who will challenge you to become the-best-version-of-yourself and all God created you to be. As loyal and as life-giving as disciple may be, its presence in our lives is dwindling. Whether we are aware of it or not we are becoming spiritually ill without it.

Matthew Kelly

During this diocesan year of the National Eucharistic Revival, we are hosting seven Evenings of Eucharistic Revival across the Diocese of Toledo. Join us for a worshipful evening of prayer and Eucharistic Adoration to enhance our understanding of, love for, and living out of the Holy Eucharist.

A Family Perspective

When Jesus called his disciples, they came “immediately.” Parents wish their children would respond as quickly, but they don't. Children grow slowly into responsibility. It is a process like walking, not done “immediately”, but in small steps. Parenting demands patients encouragement.
