Mission: We, the members of St. Louis Catholic Church, come together under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to promote the mission of Jesus Christ. We encourage and support the development of the sacramental life of each member in our communities through liturgical, education, social and service activities. The stewardship of our time, our talents and our treasures expresses the continuous accountability to God and the shared responsibility to each other, to our communities and to the world.*

Our Lives are full of gifts, such as food, clothing, friends, and homes, to name on a few. Each of us has varying abilities to read and write, to sing and act to laugh and make others laugh, to teach and to learn, to run and to swim, to play guitar or piano, to invent, to paint, to bear and raise children—the list is as long as there are people on this planet.

We are all given many gifts and talents, The secret to success and happiness lies not merely in having these gifts and talents but in recognizing where they come from. God is the giver of gifts.

When we see the things, people, and abilities in our lives as gifts from God, we alive humbly in the presence of the Lord and we dance for joy. There is no such thing as a self-made man. This concept is the height of human pride and arrogance. God makes men and women; He gives us abilities and talents. He gives us air to breathe and food to eat while we set about building our empires on this earth. Then, when we have built our empires, we seem to forget who created them, who gifted them, and who continues to sustain our lives.

World Mission Sunday

When you fill out your envelope for the Propagation of the Faith you can drop it in the collection and I will forward all to the Diocese. Thanks!

Serving Those Who Serve

This collection is taken every three years to both increase awareness and support of the mission, “Serving Those Who Serve.” The ministries offered by the Archdiocese for the Military Services benefit those who serve in all six branches of the U. S. Armed Forces, Veterans, and their families. It is the mission of this Archdiocese that they be able to seek sacramental preparations, benefit from consultation with a priest, and to receive the sacrament of penance as they defend our rights of freedom and speech, and face constant transition and uncertainty. Envelopes for your donation are attached to your bulletin. Just drop in the collection. Thanks!

Support Our Retired Priests

Please consider a donation to Perpetuate Your Gift that benefits our retired diocesan priests and your Parish. Once a priest retires, he is responsible for his own personal expenses: medical, housing, car, clothing and food. All funds contributed between September 18, 2022 and December 31, 2022 help reduce the amount the parish contributes to the fund. A gift of cash or check can be sent to Perpetuate The Gift, P.O. Box 954, Toledo, OH 43697. Envelopes are attached to your bulletin or can be found on the table in the Narthex.

A Family Perspective

So many conflicting voices and influences make parenting difficult. IN today’s gospel Jesus encourages parents to bravely "give testimony" and trust He will give us the “wisdom” to be good parents. You are not alone in parenting; a loving Father is standing with you.
