Q. No meat on Fridays in Lent?

On Fridays during the season of Lent all Catholics are required to abstain from meat. In the past it applied to every Friday of the year. So, one may ask the question, “Why? Is there something wrong with meat? Why is it ok during the rest of the year but not Lent?”

First, there is nothing wrong with eating meat itself. Jesus ate meat and this is a part of God’s plan for our lives. Of course, there is no obligation to eat either. One is free to be a vegetarian, but not required.

So, what’s the deal with not eating meat on Fridays in Lent? It’s simply a universal law of abstinence decided upon by the Catholic Church. Church sees great value in offering sacrifice to God. In fact, our universal Church law is that every Friday of the year is to be a day of fasting of some sort. It’s only in Lent that we are asked to sacrifice in the specific way of giving up meat on Fridays. This is of great value to the entire Church in that we all share in the same sacrifice during Lent together. This unites us in our sacrifice and enables us to share a common bond.

Truth be told, it really is a very small sacrifice in comparison to the sacrifice of Jesus on Good Friday.

Annual Catholic Appeal

A letter from Bishop Thomas was sent out asking for your gift and/or pledge to support the ministries of the Diocese of Toledo. This letter gives all registered parishioners an opportunity to contribute to the Appeal, especially those who are unable to attend Mass. The Appeal will be successful if every member of our parish carefully considers their circumstances and truly strives to give a significant gift. Please give prayerful consideration to your level of support to help fund the essential ministries and services supported by the Appeal. Envelopes are on the table in the Narthex.

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel says Jesus chased the merchants out of the temple, it doesn't say He was angry. Jesus teaches us to act from conviction and not from anger. He didn't condemn the merchants, only their business practice. Attack the behavior and not the person.

Religious Education/CCD

The classes are after Mass from 10:30 until 11:45. Classes every Sunday. No CCD on March 7.
