Mission: We, the members of St. Louis Catholic Church, come together under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to promote the mission of Jesus Christ. We encourage and support the development of the sacramental life of each member in our communities through liturgical, education, social and service activities. The stewardship of our time, our talents and our treasures expresses the continuous accountability to God and the shared responsibility to each other, to our communities and to the world.*

St. Louis, Sunday @ 9:00 a.m.

St. Patrick, Sunday @ 10:30 a.m.

Dear Brothers and Sisters,
Today is the Feast of Ascension of the Lord.

Luke begins the Acts of the Apostles with a systematic presentation of God's plan, which culminates with the exaltation of Jesus. Specifically, Luke is concerned with describing the forty-day period of preparation that begins with the Lord's resurrection day and progress to the ascension. The number forty is symbolic for preparedness: Noah's forty days in the ark, Moses' forty days on Mount Sinai, Elijah's forty days of wondering in the desert, and Jesus' own forty days of preparation for ministry in the desert. Thus, even though the liturgical season of Easter is nearing completion, the celebration of the Lord's ascension on the fortieth day points us in the direction of preparedness for the future.

How has the Church as a whole been preparing? What is the goal of this preparation? Luke answers the first question by testifying that the Lord "presented himself alive to (the apostles) by many proofs after he had suffered." During his post-resurrection appearances, Christ commanded the apostles to remain in Jerusalem. The Lord wished for those closest to him to remain together in order to strengthen one another before he would finally depart from their sight. Regarding the goal of these forty days of preparation, Luke also provides the answer: the apostles will "receive power" from the coming of the Holy Spirit to witness to the "ends of the earth." The resurrected Jesus reveals this only after they reveal their misunderstanding of the nature of the kingdom that is to come.

A Family Perspective

Ascension -Jesus tells us today, "you are my witnesses" and guarantees the "promise of the Father" to "clothe us with power to accomplish this mission. It is not worldly power which dominates and manipulates. It is the power of the Kingdom of God to live in peace, forgiveness, compassion, service to others, love of enemies and care for the poor and defenseless.
