The Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity

This weekend we celebrate the Feast of the Most Holy Trinity. The faith in the Trinity is “the central mystery of Christian faith and life...[and is] the source of all the other mysteries of faith” (CCC 234). The whole of the Church’s life flows from the central belief that the one true God exists as three divine Persons—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. Since the very beginning of time, God has gradually revealed and communicated the truth of who he is as Trinitarian through what he has done in salvation history (see CCC 53-67).

In revealing himself as Trinitarian, God hasn’t merely shared impersonal facts about himself; rather, God has shared himself with us, and has invited us into his own inner life and communion of love, which alone is the origin, goal, and meaning of our life. On Trinity Sunday, the Church proclaims the truth about God—that God is love (1 John 4:8)—and the truth about us: we are made for this love. We eternally belong to God—we have an eternal home!

“I will not leave you orphans!” If Jesus has promised to never leave us orphans, then that means we have a permanent home—we eternally belong to the Father as children of his heavenly household! This is the mystery into which the Church invites us more deeply on the Solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. Yet this truth is also the very gift that that we are invited to share with all whom God entrusts to us in our daily lives: “Love one another as I have loved you” (John 15:12). Every human heart longs for its eternal home. Today, we invite the Trinity to be more at home in our hearts in order to make them a more welcoming home for others—that through our smile, our gentleness, our availability of heart, everyone whom the Father entrusts to us may experience the Love that is their eternal home. KofC Tootsie Rolls Drive

We the Knights of Columbus have been running Tootsie Rolls Drive for past couple years. The funds raised from this drive are donated towards institutions that help children with intellectual disabilities.

During past two years we have raised $2068. We donated $1,000 to Timberwolff Stables in Whitehouse, OH last summer. This year, our council is supporting the following two organizations:

Wood County Plays - $500 - they are building a new inclusive playground for children in Bowling Green, Ohio (similar to the one that was built in Perrysburg, OH)

Bittersweet Farms - $568.78 - local organization in Whitehouse, OH that supports lives of individuals who have autism.

We want to say big thank you to all who supported our fund drive. A fresh shipment of Tootsie Rolls arrived this week. Costs to start selling these are as follows: Case - $50 (300 Tootsie Rolls in a case) Box - $10 (50 Tootsie Rolls in a box)

Thank You

The family of Nancy L. Adler would like to thank everyone who supported us in prayer, visitation, memorials, food preparation and mostly friendly thoughts during the recent passing of our Mother last April.

A Family Perspective

The words of Jesus in today's gospel, "I have many things to say to you, but you cannot hear them now." could have been said by any parent. It can be frustrating because our desire to guide is often misinterpreted or poorly received. We cannot program our children. We can only teach, lead and trust the Spirit of truth will guide them.
