Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

June 02 , 2024

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

We are so used to the Eucharist that we can sometimes forget how amazing this sacrament really is. That's one of the reasons the Church gives us today's beautiful feast of Corpus Christi. Today, every Catholic throughout the world is turning their attention to this divine gift by which Jesus Christ, under the appearances of bread and wine, continues to dwell among us and to nourish our souls through the most Blessed Sacrament of the Eucharist.

Did you know there are two miracles involved in this sacrament, two miracles that occur at every Mass? First, during the words of consecration, the normal substances of bread and wine are changed into Christ's living body and blood. The substance of the bread is changed into his body, and the substance of the wine is changed into his blood; this process is called "transubstantiation." They are truly changed; Christ becomes truly present in them. This is the first miracle.

The second miracle is that although the substance of the bread and wine has changed, their appearance remains the same. After the words of consecration, they still look like bread and wine, but under those appearances, Jesus is truly present. This is why we treat the Eucharist with such reverence: it is not just a symbol; it is a sacrament, a mystery of Christ's real presence. These two miracles are performed at every Mass, through the ministry of the priest, by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Let us all take a moment this weekend to meditate on the great gift that Jesus has given us – his own body and blood.

God bless,

Dcn. Dave

Please pray for our Bishop and Priests

The priests of the Diocese of Toledo will gather with Bishop Daniel E. Thomas for their bi-annual Convocation from June 17-20, 2024. Once again, the convocation will be at Sawmill Creek Resort, Huron, Ohio. The bishop has the expectation that all active diocesan priests will be joining him for the full duration of the Convocation. Therefore, daily Mass schedules and priests' office hours throughout the diocese will be altered to accommodate the participation of all active priests in the convocation. The convocation provides our priests the opportunity to be together for spiritual nourishment, prayer, fellowship, and recreation. Please remember to pray for all of them, that their priestly fidelity, unity, and identity will continue to be renewed and deepened.
