Dear Brothers and Sisters,
In the gospel this weekend we hear Jesus making statements that will probably hurt many of us. Jesus asks us to love Him more than we love our Father, Mother, Son and Daughter. We may wonder how it is possible to love Jesus more than those who we live with. What is the intention of Jesus in making this statement? What does he mean by loving Jesus more than we love anyone else?

I think Jesus is making right statements. We are called to love God more than anyone else in our life. Remember the response of Jesus to the question - "Teacher, which commandment in the law is the greatest?" He said to him, "You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your soul, and with all your mind..." (Matthew 22: 36-37).

I believe when we place the love of God before anyone else in our life, we will be able to love everyone else better because God is Love. By loving God, we will be drawing from the source of love itself and hence we will be able to love others like God loves.

A Family Perspective

Today's gospel challenges us to resist the individualism of our culture. Everything we are and have is pure gift which we are expected to share especially to the "lowly ones." What has been freely given needs to be shared freely. NO strings attached.
