Mission: We, the members of St. Louis Catholic Church, come together under the guidance of the Holy Spirit, to promote the mission of Jesus Christ. We encourage and support the development of the sacramental life of each member in our communities through liturgical, education, social and service activities. The stewardship of our time, our talents and our treasures expresses the continuous accountability to God and the shared responsibility to each other, to our communities and to the world.*

I READ a very powerful line in Richard Foster's work, Celebration of Discipline. In it, he discusses the ways possessions can complicate and rule our lives: "Learn to enjoy things without having to own them." It struck me very deeply, because I Like having may own things. But it made me realize that sometimes it is more enjoyable to be able to use something for the day or a week, or even a month, and not have to give it permanent space in your mind.

One of the most powerful ways for us to simplify our lives is in the area of money and things. Examining our attitudes toward money and things can also provide valuable 1`the motives that drive us.

Thank you

The funeral committee and the family of Don Maas would like to thank the parishioners who donated food for the funeral dinner. It was deeply appreciated, and we thank you for your continued support for the families in their time of need.

Please remember to pick up your dishes in the back of church.

"On behalf of the Edwin C. Kern family, we want to express our heartfelt gratitude for opening your church and providing a comforting space for us to gather, mourn and celebrate the life of Edwin C. Kern. We also would like to thank the parishioners for organizing and providing the lunch-in. Your generosity and thoughtfulness during this difficult time are deeply appreciated. It was a comforting gesture that meant a lot to us. Please continue to keep our family in your prayers as we navigate this time of loss in return, we will keep your church and community in our prayers as well ."

Rosary Guild

If you or someone you know would be interested in learning a new hobby, the Rosary Guild is always looking for new members. We meet at Deshler ICC Church Hall on the 3rd Thursday every other month at 200. The next meeting is scheduled for July 18 at 2:00. During meetings we read minutes, thank you letters from recipients, share rosary stories/testimonies and pick out supplies to take home to make rosaries. Each rosary takes approximately 15 minutes to make and can be done while watching TV-very easy! Please join us if you think you might be interested. We will make sure you get all needed supplies and will show you how to make them. If you are unable to attend the meetings, no problem, just drop off completed rosaries at your convenience. The rosaries are mailed to groups in the US who will then distribute to VA Hospitals, prisons, school children, homeschool providers, street evangelizers and missionaries around the world. Bryan Thatcher will be using them at a Divine Mercy Conference in FL. If you have any questions or would like to learn how to make them prior to the next meeting feel free to contact Luann Flowers or Josie Martinzez.

Family Perspective

The healing of the woman and the child in today's gospel is a reminder we are all wounded. We retreat to those we love looking for acceptance, listening, understanding and support. Families must be healing communities where Jesus is present in our care for one another.,
