Humility consists of recognizing two simple truths at the same time: first, our nothingness, imperfection, and sinfulness; and second, God's greatness and the great things He can do in and through us. We are instruments. A paintbrush doesn't take the praise for a masterpiece; the artist does.

Think of it like this: you and I are simply vessels. If by some chance the Divine Gardener has laid His hands on us and place us in His garden, filled us with the richest of soils, and in those soils has planted many beautiful seeds, and if from one of the seeds has grown a beautiful tree from which come wonderful fruits while from the other seeds many pretty flowers put forth wonderful fragrances and splendid colors—what have you and I had to do with the fruit, the fragrance, or the color? Nothing. We are just the vessel. We are instruments in the hands of God. The question is, are we prepared to let God use us?

Surrendering your life to God is about making yourself available for him. God works many wonders in the lives of those who make themselves available to Him. (Matthew Kelly)

A Family Perspective

In today's gospel the rich man died and was condemned to "a place of torment" because he ignored the poor. He asked Lazarus to go and warn his five brothers to change their ways. Evidently ignoring the poor was a family pattern. Is your family sensitive to the poor?
